

The Bible Garden

The Tillicum Presbyterian Center in Lakewood, Washington provided the perfect setting to plant a Bible Garden. The Rev. Iris Martin, pastor, botanist, Master Gardener, biblical scholar, and educator planted a Bible Garden and then wrote about it in a series of articles. This booklet contains the articles that were published by Olympia Presbytery in a weekly newsletter as well as additional articles that will inform the reader about plants mentioned in the Old and New Testaments. Jesus referred to plants that were in his sight as he taught his followers. Enjoy learning about the plants of the Bible that were designed by the Master Creator and expand your biblical knowledge. Plan your own biblical garden. The plants that are mentioned were chosen because of their ability to grow in Region Eight and the Pacific Northwest.
